In addressing the question What matters? Jesus Christ shared eight rather provocative and radical concepts concerning the nature of justice, power, mercy, and love: concepts that challenged the structure of society and opinions of the political and religious elite.

Here are eight photo cards representing each idea. Do any of these overlap with your values, desires, or your idea of spirituality? We'd love to hear your thoughts and experiences.

INTRODUCTION

What Matters?

Increasingly, people feel and fear that God is distant or irrelevant. Even if they believe He exists, God is often seen as a generic Being who is disconnected from their lives and the issues of the world. But Jesus Christ gave us a different picture—of a God who intimately engaged with people, and actively addressed the biggest issues of his day. He is a God who cares about the things we care about.

What Matters? is a set of cards designed to start personal and meaningful conversations about the topics that matter to people, and that matter to God—whether it's fighting for justice and peace in the world, or growing through times of suffering in our lives.

The purpose of the cards is to make it easy and enjoyable for you to “go deeper” with another person, and to form a heart connection as you share your experiences with one another. Imagine someone tearing up as they talk about the death of their family member, or their struggle facing prejudice or poverty in their childhood. Imagine someone sharing their painful experiences about the church where they never could fit in...and then discovering that Jesus advocated for the weak and marginalized of his society.

STRENGTH IN SUFFERING

Many people seek to eliminate or insulate themselves from pain and discomfort. But Jesus embraced suffering, and how God uses it to change us and grow our capacity for love and compassion.

HUMILITY OVER PROMOTION

The world is full of those seeking fame and celebrity—those who put their own interests and agendas first. But Jesus valued things done quietly, when nobody is watching.
